
The

Paula Nye Memorial Education Grant

Memorial Bicyclist and Pedestrian Education Grant was established in honor of Paula Nye, Kentucky's Bicycle and Pedestrian Coordinator from 2000-2005.

This grant program is funded solely by citizen contributions made by purchasing Kentucky's "Share the Road" specialty license plate. To date (2015) the Paula Nye Memorial Education Grant has provided $571,531.78 toward bicycle and pedestrian education programs.

The Purpose

The Paula Nye Memorial Education Grants are intended to inform and educate the citizens of the Commonwealth of Kentucky to:

- Matters pertaining to bicycle and pedestrian safety through the development of curriculum, training aids, and/or educational programs or projects directly related to bicycle and pedestrian safety.
- The health, recreational, economic, social, cultural and other benefits arising from bicycling and walking.
 - To promote other bicycling and pedestrian related non-profit, educational and purposes as deemed appropriate by the Commission.

OTHER EXAMPLES OF FUNDABLE PROJECTS AND ACTIVITIES:

Education materials including but not necessarily limited to:

- Safety informational brochures
 - Videotapes and DVD's
 - Limited staff salaries
- Public awareness campaigns
- Traffic education and enforcement in a specific target area
- Costs incurred to provide safety training, commuting or ride leader certification classes and facilitator fees for adult and/or child bicycle, pedestrian and motor vehicle safety training classes.

OTHER EXAMPLES of PREVIOUSLY FUNDED PROJECTS

- Louisville Metro Bicycle Classes / Ashland/Boyd County Health Department Bicycle Education Rodeo
- STREET SENSE Video Project / Folk Bike Recyclery Mobile Bicycle Education Rodeo and Safety Classes
- Whitley County Youth Bicycle Education Program / Western Kentucky University Big Red Bikes Program
- University of Kentucky Wildcat Wheels
- YMCA of Central KY Pedestrian Education & Encouragement Programs / Northern Kentucky YMCA Camp Ernst Bicycle safety and Basic Skills Class

The Paula Nye Grant Program is administered by Kentucky Bicycle and Bikeway Commission in cooperation with Kentucky Transportation Cabinet. KRS 174.125(3)(a)-(c)

For more information, and an application please visit:

Kentucky Transportation Cabinet Bicycle and Pedestrian Program website:
www.bikewalk.ky.gov/

Kentucky Bicycle and Bikeway Commission website:
<https://www.facebook.com/KentuckyBicycleBikewayCommission>

