KYTC TransGIS Conference 2014

Save the date! Enter a presentation idea!

When: Tuesday, April 22, 2014

Where: Kentucky Transportation Cabinet Conference Center at 200 Mero Street, Frankfort, KY

Who Should Attend: Anyone interested in sharing and learning about using GIS for Kentucky Transportation. (Note: KYTC Staff must have supervisory approval prior to attending.)

Cost: Free

This free one day mini-conference is designed to foster collaboration and integration of data, spatial technologies for streamlining work processes and improving understanding and decision making within your transportation work. It is for KYTC staff and the Kentucky GIS community at large interested in Transportation applications of GIS.

Online submission of presentation proposals is now open at:

<http://transportation.ky.gov/Geographic-Information-Systems/Pages/Call-for-Papers.aspx>

If you have an interesting project you would like to share, please submit your idea. Please keep in mind this is not a venue for marketing goods and services. Presentations should be approximately 20-25 minutes in length (including Q&A). Please indicate if you believe your proposed presentation will exceed this time allotment in the Comments section of the online submission.

We invite you to attend, learn, and share your knowledge and ideas with your transportation GIS colleagues and peers. Space is limited, so you must pre-register to attend this conference at the following link:
