DATE: March 22, 2012

SUBJECT: Standard Drawings 2012

The activation of the 2012 reprint of the KYTC Standard Drawings will coincide with the release of the 2012 Standard Specifications book, and will take effect with the June 2012 Letting. This is a different effective date than was previously stated when the Standard Drawings were originally released back in January.

Since the January release of the 2012 Standard Drawings, some revisions have occurred. Two additional packets were released to those that had already received their new manuals, replacing sheets that contained minor errors. Here is a list of the sheets that have been updated as a part of the previous 2012 revisions:

- BDP-013-02
- BGX-006-09

2/17/12 Revision #2
