The 2010 Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games

kentuckytourism.com

The 2010 Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games will be held at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington from Sept. 20 to Oct. 3, 2010. Often referred to as the Olympics of the equestrian world, the Games will be the largest equine sporting event ever held in North America, and the largest sporting event of any kind in Kentucky history. More than 800 human and equine competitors will represent more than 50 nations and attract an estimated 500,000 spectators. The staging of the FEI World Equestrian Games in Kentucky confirms its reputation as the "horse capital of the world."

Home of the
2008 Ryder Cup

The 37th Ryder Cup will be held Sept. 16-21, 2008 at Valhalla Golf Club in Louisville, Ky. Valhalla will become only the third golf course in the nation to host a PGA Championship, a Senior PGA Championship and a Ryder Cup. This event pits the best U.S. golfers against Europe's finest in golf's grandest event. Designed by golf legend Jack Nicklaus in 1986, Valhalla is undergoing a multi-million dollar modification program that is headed by Nicklaus.

The year 2009 marks the bicentennial of Abraham Lincoln's birth. The Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial opening ceremony will be held at Abraham Lincoln Birthplace National Historic Site in Hodgenville, Ky. on Feb. 12, 2008. Kentucky will kick off a year-long celebration and remembrance of the man who became the nation's sixteenth president. At the Historic Site, the Birthplace Unit demonstrates Lincoln's humble beginnings with a symbolic birth cabin enshrined within a neo-classic Memorial Building. Events in Kentucky helped mold a young boy into the man who became one of our country's greatest presidents.
