BUFFALO TRACE DISTILLERY

This year's banquet is at Buffalo Trace Distillery where they have been distilling bourbon whiskey on the banks of the Kentucky River in Frankfort for 200 years. Known for their rich tradition, Buffalo Trace holds the title for being the oldest operating distillery, even during Prohibition. Come, take a tour to see how corn, rye and malted barley is processed, distilled and aged into the finest bourbon. Enjoy a peek inside the Buffalo Trace Whiskey Vault for a look at their rare historical collection of bourbons and whiskeys. Then sample some bourbon, browse the gift shop and stroll through the gardens to the Clubhouse for the PUG banquet dinner.
