

April 2026 Kentucky Industrial Access & Safety Improvement (KIASI) Program

Recipient	Project Name	Project Details	KIASI Award
Jared Donaldson Trucking, LLC	Railroad Project	Reactivation of a rail spur, where railcars are staged, to increase opportunities in Graves County and the Tri-State area and installation of a new turnout that can access the line for transloading multiple cars. Includes New scales, conveying system, and additional equipment for loading and unloading purposes.	$ 500,000.00
Norfolk Southern Railway	KY Stability and Drainage Resilience Project	Reinforce track roadbed at five locations across four counties: Kenton, Lincoln, Scott, and Shelby. Work will include installing upstream check dams, embankment and slope stabilization, erosion control enhancement, and improve drainage.	$ 305,000.00
Progress Rail Services Corporation	Decoursey Railcar Repair Project	Develop a medium and light-duty freight railcar repair facility at Decoursey (Kenton County) while also rehabilitating 6,500 feet of track, vegetation removal, tie and switch replacement, and drainage improvements.	$ 300,000.00
RJ Corman Railroad Company/Central Kentucky Lines	Jett Transload Project	Safety improvements and repairs to track in Franklin County. The work will establish a permanent transload capability and improve the overall operational capacity and reliability.	$ 284,000.00
Total Investment:			$ 1,389,000.00