Campaign Overview

Campaign Summary

Impaired driving is one of the most significant dangers on our roadways. Every day, almost 30 people in the U.S. die in drunk-driving crashes – that’s one person every 48 minutes in 2017. Although drunk-driving related deaths have fallen by a third over the last three decades, they still claim over 10,000 lives per year.

With marijuana and other impairing substances such as prescription, over-the-counter and illicit drugs becoming more and more prevalent amongst drivers in this country, impairment is one of the most significant safety challenges to overcome on our roadways.

Although impaired driving is dangerous and prevalent year-round, the Labor Day holiday period (6 pm September 1st – 5:59 am September 5th) is particularly deadly. During the Labor Day holiday period, drunk driving related deaths are approximately three times more likely to occur than other times on the road. This playbook is designed to give you the tools to launch your campaign. Your efforts may help save lives.

Objectives

- Increase awareness of this dangerous time period by generating earned media coverage and social chatter
- Decrease impaired driving fatalities on America’s roadways during the Labor Day holiday period
- Change behaviors and attitudes towards impaired driving

Labor Day Posting Strategy

The Labor Day enforcement period is August 16 to September 2, with paid advertising running from August 14 to September 2. It is encouraged to post throughout the period, but especially leading up to Labor Day weekend itself.

Posting on the Wednesday, Thursday and Friday leading up to Labor Day weekend will help the message reach drivers and riders before they hit the roads to celebrate Labor Day. Weekend morning posts are also helpful to reach drivers and riders before they head out for the day.
