Governor's Awards to Honor Law Enforcement and Child Passenger Safety Personnel for Excellence in Occupant Protection Enforcement

Ceremony recognizes law enforcement efforts to keep roadways safe

FRANKFORT, Ky. (Aug. 20, 2024) – Despite the implementation of laws and a wealth of data showing that seat belts and child restraints save lives, each year hundreds of unrestrained motorists lose their lives on Kentucky roadways. Law enforcement officers and child passenger safety personnel throughout the state are working to reduce these fatalities through extraordinary efforts to increase seat belt and child restraint usage.

The Kentucky Transportation Cabinet's Office of Highway Safety will honor these recipients at 11:30 a.m. EDT on Wednesday, Aug. 21, at the Governor's Occupant Protection Enforcement Awards ceremony at The Campbell House located at 1375 S Broadway, Lexington

WHO: Kentucky Office of Highway Safety Executive Director Bill Bell
Kentucky Transportation Cabinet Deputy Secretary Mike Hancock
Kentucky State Police Commissioner Colonel PJ Burnett, Jr.
Retired Lexington Police Officer Dawn Miller
