Commonwealth Preservation Trades Board to meet Thursday, July 12 in Louisville

FRANKFORT, Ky. (July 6, 2018) – The Kentucky Transportation Cabinet's Commonwealth Preservation Trades Board will meet Thursday, July 12 at 1:30 p.m. in Louisville. The meeting will be in Building C of the Kentucky Center for African American Heritage, 1701 W. Muhammad Ali Blvd., Louisville, KY 40203. The meeting is open to the public.

The Commonwealth Preservation Trades program is for residents of Louisville's West End to learn skills necessary for work in the field of preservation trades. The Kentucky Transportation Cabinet funds the program with general oversight provided by the Kentucky Heritage Council/State Historic Preservation Office. The program was started as a project mitigation innovation for the Louisville-Southern Indiana Ohio River Bridges Project.
