

FEMA Q3 Flood Data, dated 9/98, was obtained from the Federal Emergency Management Agency.

National Wetland Inventory mapping was obtained from the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources Information Systems.

Environmental Stewardship data was downloaded from the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources Information Systems, publication date 2001.

USGS topographic mapping was obtained from the Kentucky Geological Survey for the Burtonville, Carlisle, Charters, Cowan, Cranston, Elizaville, Flemingsburg, Hillsboro, Mayslick, Moorefield, Mt. Olivet, Orangeburg, Piqua, Plumers Landing, Sardis, Sherburne, Stricklett, and Tollesboro 7.5' quadrangles.

Natural Environment

Fairview to Tollesboro Alternatives Study
KYTC Item No. 9-178.00

3,500 0 3,500 7,000
Feet

- Study Area Boundary
- Potential Indiana Bat Habitat (Summer Maternity)
- Potential Short's Goldenrod Habitat
- Old Growth Woods
- Wetlands
- 100-year Floodplains
- Publicly Owned Natural Area
- State Roads