I. INTRODUCTION

The URS Corporation was retained by the Kentucky Transportation Cabinet (KYTC) to prepare a series of potential financing planning documents for the I-69 corridor in the vicinity of Henderson, Kentucky and Evansville, Indiana. Specifically the plan would identify the potential elements of a plan that could utilize a variety of funding mechanisms to pay for the development and construction costs of the project.

Recognizing that the specifics regarding such a conceptual program would benefit from the input of qualified experts in the financing field, URS chose to add a highly competent sub-consultant to the team to better delineate and quantify the list of potential financing mechanisms available to the KYTC as they potentially proceed with this important program. This technical memorandum summarizes the methodology and findings of the Conceptual Financing analysis for the I-69 Corridor under the current URS Agreement with the KYTC, Contract Number PON2-625-0700004076, Engineering Services for Statewide Roadway Design Services Agreement #200759.

For purposes of this study URS Corporation was directed to utilize defined levels of feasibility studies in the progression of project development. That is, at this conceptual-level analysis, the available data was accumulated and reviewed and broad assumptions were made to determine the financial feasibility of the project. This document includes the findings of a Traffic and Revenue Study prepared for the KYTC and provided to URS and Citigroup Global Markets Inc. (Citi) as the sole input to the estimate of potential traffic and revenue available for usage of the project should it proceed to development. URS and Citi did not develop these estimates and assume no responsibility for their development. In addition this document includes the findings of the Traffic and Revenue Analysis and also includes the following:

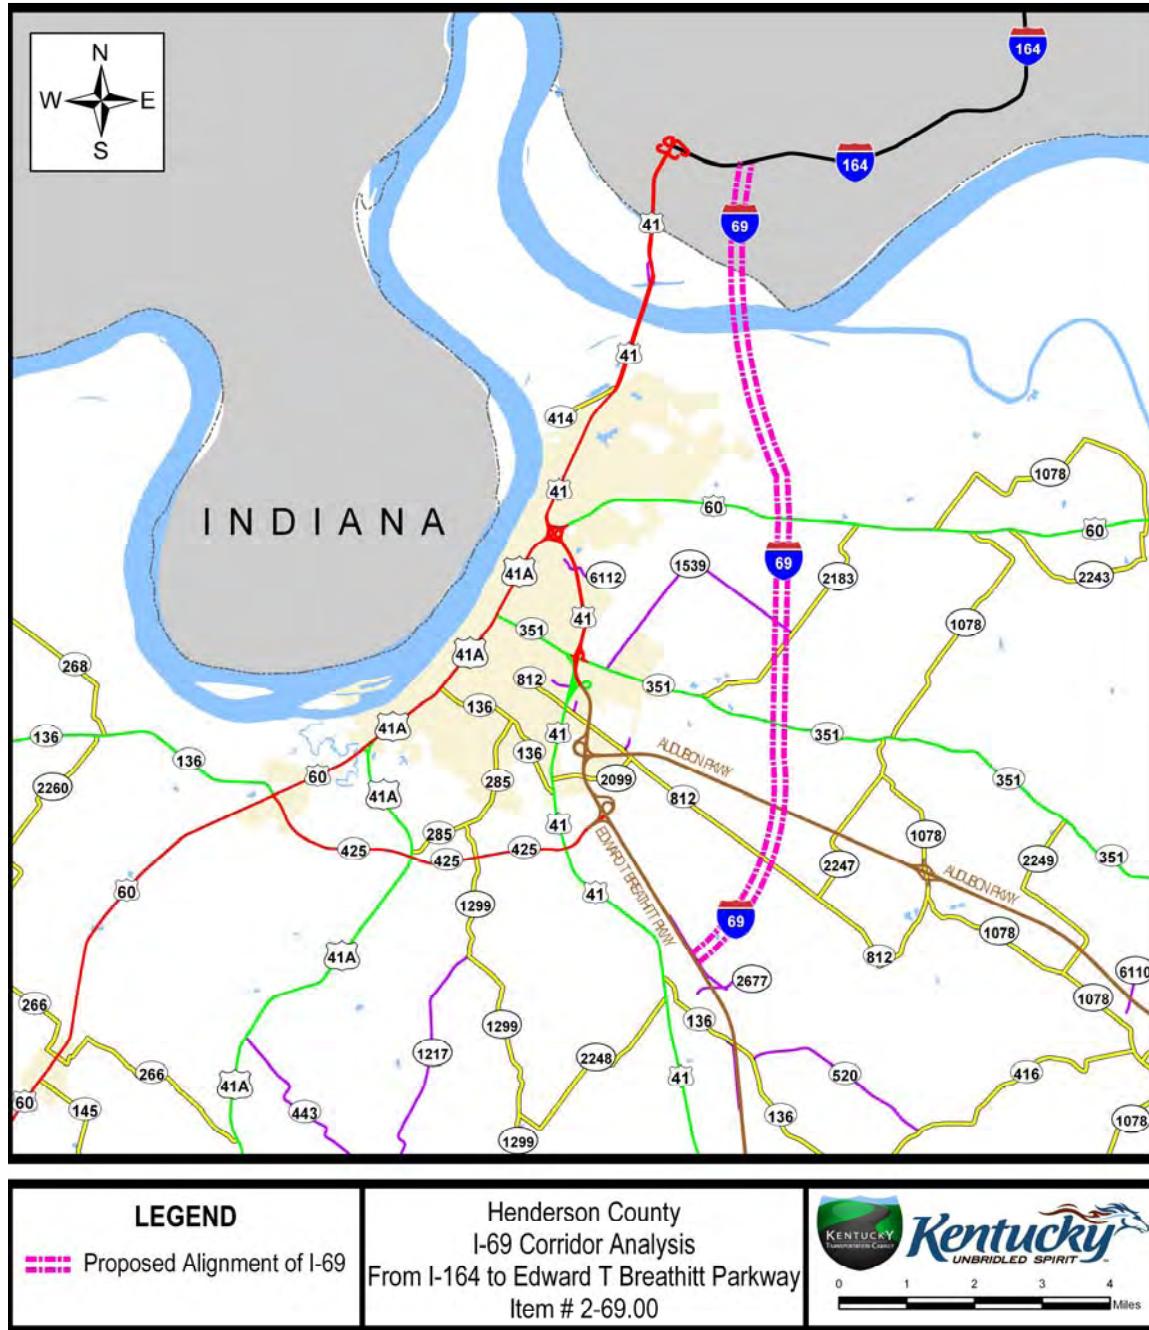

- Forecasts of traffic and revenue for bonding years;
- Estimates of operation and maintenance expenses;
- Bonding capacities for each of the alternatives analyzed; and
- Present financial alternatives to deliver the project with all available and applicable revenue streams.

II. BACKGROUND

The specific corridor being considered as part of this project is identified as the I-69 Corridor in Henderson County Kentucky as part of the Interstate-69 corridor proposed for national status from Michigan to Texas. A portion of the corridor considers the utilization of existing highways in the vicinity of Evansville, Indiana and Henderson, Kentucky. This analysis considered the preferred alternative routes from Indianapolis, Indiana to Fulton, Kentucky. More specifically, the traffic and revenue analysis focused on the specific impact that the imposition of tolls on the segment between I-164, east of Evansville to the Breathitt Parkway, south of Henderson would have on the project. This segment was identified as Alternative 2 in the Draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS) and was specifically requested as the focus of this study by KYTC. The environs of the project as shown in the following graphic.

Vicinity Map

III. PROJECTED TRAFFIC AND GROSS TOLL REVENUE

The Study's initial task was for the URS team to determine and understand the available data provided by KYTC, any of its limitations and ultimately to provide input to the development of the traffic and revenue estimates. It was determined that the KYTC would utilize internal modeling expertise and the Kentucky Statewide Model (KYSTM) as the platform to determine the potential for traffic and toll revenue for the project. These results would then be supplied to the URS team for use in the project analysis. Each of the model runs would reflect the agreed upon alternative scenarios developed in concert with the URS team as discussed below.

The following scenarios were initially agreed upon with KYTC and discussion with URS and Citi and are forecasted for the "base" year of 2007 and the "future" year of 2030. It was also assumed that I-69 to Indianapolis was open to traffic:

- No Build
- Alternative 2 (Scenario 3)-no toll
- Alternative 2 with a toll on the I-69 segment only
- Alternative 2 with tolls on both the I-69 and US 41 segments

3.1 Development of Traffic Assignment Process

The KYSTM model was utilized by the KYTC to aid in the determination of traffic and toll revenue under the initial set of scenarios identified above. The specific approach used by them to develop the traffic and toll revenue estimates is called "trip assignment," which estimates and forecasts route choice based on travel time. The KYSTM is a trip assignment model that is based on travel time and not on cost. This type of model considers the shortest path to be the quickest route of travel based on distance and speed of the links. The following paragraphs are specific to the resultant document provided by KYTC and are provided with only minor editorial comments to provide consistency in this reporting document.

A relationship to time penalty and toll value was first developed as part of the modeling process utilized for this analysis. It was noted that tolls can also be referred to as road pricing and in a relevant proceeding sponsored by FHWA through TMIP, an expert forum identified a reasonable relationship between generalized toll cost and equivalent time penalty (i.e. impedance). The relationship is dependent upon the value of the occupants and independent upon the vehicle's cost. In the paper an average value of $12/hour equated to 20 cents per toll mile. This aggregates time sensitive, work trips, and non-work trip costs.

Once the traffic model was validated, a series of model runs were conducted. As volumes increase on a route, speeds drop, and time increases resulting in a reduction in the attractiveness of a route. In order to simulate tolls on a segment, a time penalty or impedance was added to the network, thus making time proportional to money. As this impedance (i.e. travel time) is increased, the attractiveness of that route decreases. Using various time penalties, a trend in traffic volume can be developed indicating the sensitivity of a route to increasing toll.

Scenarios were run with and without I-69 to Indianapolis being completed for 2007. When the section of I-69 over the Ohio River occurs before the I-69 section to Indianapolis, about 7,500 or 20 percent of existing traffic took the new link toward the Breathitt Parkway. The Henderson I-69 section volume increased by 50 percent (approximately 12,000 vehicles) after the section to Indianapolis was opened.

Since time is proportional to money, it is important to develop the cost over a distance and magnitude of the speed needs to be considered. In the case of the 10.2 mile Henderson I-69 section's segment from I-64 to the Audubon Parkway, the speed was assumed to average 65 mph. These rates were based on an assumed travel speed of 65 mph on the new Henderson I-69 section for current year (2007) and future (2030) traffic.

The next series of model runs varied the impedance of bridge segments to simulate various toll values. These runs assumed that I-69 from Evansville to Indianapolis was open to traffic. As tolls are varied, trip routes change. Analysis shows a trend of reduced trips over the both Henderson area bridges as a result of increasing impedance or increased toll. When analyzing the total volume of vehicles crossing the Ohio River at Henderson and Owensboro, increased tolls result in a negligible reduction of trips.

3.2 Base year (2007) traffic volumes

During the modeling process the KYSTM was first calibrated using all count stations within the modeled network. Prior year volumes were projected to 2007 using growth rates specific to each station. Speeds and the points traffic enters the network were adjusted to improve the overall percent error with emphasis on Henderson and Daviess Counties. The model simulated an ADT of 36,400 compared to a count of 38,800 at station P-38 or a difference of 6.5 percent. Speeds along US 41 were reviewed between the US 60 interchange in Kentucky and the I-169 interchange in Indiana. Ultimately, speeds through the signalized section of US-41 were reduced to an average of 21 mph, thus effectively adding 2 minutes over the posted speed travel time to compensate for three existing signals. Finally, refinements were made to approximate some of the 25,000 trips that originate in Evansville. These trips enter the network north of the Lloyd Expressway in Evansville.

3.3 Future year (2030) growth factors

Once the base year numbers were determined to be reasonable, the development of anticipated growth factors was determined to allow the expansion of the data to reflect the anticipated growth in traffic over a predetermined period of time for future traffic projections. The out year or “future” year of 2030 was agreed upon. A review of the populations in the city and county of Henderson suggested a growth rate of 1.6 percent. A review of the growth rates at count stations in Henderson provided a similar growth rate of about 1.5 percent. Finally, the DEIS considered growth rates between 0.8 and 1.8 percent. For the purpose of this report, an overall growth rate of 1.6 percent was determined to be a reasonable assumption of growth over the projection period and was used to project 2030 traffic volumes.

3.4 Truck Percentages

One final assumption regarding the estimated truck percentages along US 41 are available from research of Urban Principal Arterial roadways in Kentucky similar to US 41. This process suggested an average truck growth percentage of 1.5 percent compared to an Urban Interstate growth rate of 2.0 percent. For the purpose of this forecast, a growth rate of 1.7 percent was universally applied to project future truck volumes

Finally, an open-to-traffic date of 2020 and a design year of 2040 was assumed. All analysis used current 2007 data or was grown to represent 2007 data. This toll analysis used a midpoint of 2030 for calculations.

The impacts of the tolling scenarios on each bridge’s traffic can be viewed in Table 1 for 2007 data and Table 2 for 2030 data. The reduction of overall trips reduces slightly with tolling of both bridges.

3.5 Results

Increasing the impedance on the new bridge segment reduces the attractiveness of the route quickly. As expected, when tolls are applied to Henderson bridge segments, the non-tolled or free bridge has increased traffic. When both bridges are tolled a trivial amount of traffic is diverted to Owensboro or omitted completely.

A $1.00 toll on the Henderson I-69 section equates to about a 5 minute delay. A $2.00 toll on the Henderson I-69 section equates to about a 10 minute delay. Similarly, a $1.00 toll on the Henderson I-69 section and a $1.00 toll on US 41 equates to about a 5 minute delay on each bridge.

IV. PROJECTED EXPENSES

The expenses for toll collection (operations) and maintenance of the toll collection system for the I-69 project were estimated by URS for the forecast period.

The operating expenses were estimated to be $1.5M a year. Periodic and annual maintenance costs are estimated to be $350K a year. These estimates are based on URS' information database developed for other toll authorities who operate existing toll facilities with similar characteristics to those anticipated for the I-69 corridor.

V. ESTIMATED NET TOLL REVENUES

The gross toll revenues provided from Tables 1 and 2 in section 3.5 of this document were then matched with the estimates of routine operation and maintenance costs provided in the previous section, to arrive at anticipated net toll revenues available for potential bonding of the project costs. This information is detailed in Tables provided in the estimates of net toll revenue used by Citi in the financial engineering section and are contained in detail in each financial case in the Appendix

VI. ESTIMATED PROJECT COSTS

The cost estimates for the project (from the DEIS) have been reviewed and updated to reflect current market pricing in 2007 dollars. Original cost estimates provided in the DEIS had the total cost of the project being $652M in 2003 dollars. Kentucky's cost sharing agreement with Indiana allocates 2/3 of the total cost ($402M) to the KYTC. Inflation factors were applied to previous cost estimates as follows:

- Design – 4%
- Right of Way – 5%
- Construction Costs
  - Prior to 2003 – 4%
  - 2003-2007 – 10%
  - 2008- 8%
  - 2009-future – 4%

Construction years were estimated to be 2017-2019 with a bridge opening date of January 1, 2020. Updated cost estimates are included in Table 3.

*Design Cost = 10% of Construction Cost

25% Contingency = Unknown cost factor used in Preliminary Planning

The projected project costs have increased $750M since the last estimate provided in the DEIS in 2003 dollars. Updated total project costs are estimated to be $1.4B with Kentucky's share being $934M. Construction costs continue to escalate due to the higher price of fuel and world demand for steel and concrete. Based on the construction inflation factors described above, total construction costs for the project would significantly increase by 2017 . Construction would begin in 2017 and last three years. A complete breakdown on project costs, including all detail and escalation is included in Appendix A.

VII. ESTIMATED BONDING CAPACITY & FUNDING ALTERNATIVES

A project feasibility study was conducted that utilized forecasts of traffic and toll revenue (prepared by KYTC) and maintenance, operation and construction costs (prepared by the team). The analysis below pertains exclusively to the most robust toll revenue forecast ($2.00 toll rate and tolling on both I-69 and US 41). The lower revenue cases (combining lower toll rates with the tolling of one facility only) would produce far less toll revenue available for debt service and would be significantly less feasible.

VIII. FINANCIAL STRUCTURING

8.1 Base Case

As a starting point for the analysis, a tax-exempt, fully non-recourse 44-year bond structure (consisting of 4 years of capitalized interest and 40 years of bond amortization) was assumed. Utilizing a combination of current interest and capital appreciation bonds, a capacity analysis based upon the traffic and toll revenue study was performed. Under a net revenue pledge scenario, 25.9 percent of the total project development costs can be funded. For the complete analysis, please refer to the Base Case.

8.2 Gross Revenue Pledge

In order to examine and possibly mitigate the project shortfall, a gross revenue pledge scenario (whereby KYTC would commit to pay all O&M expenses for the life of the bonds) was conducted. In this case, all gross toll revenues would be available for debt service and 31.5 percent of the project could potentially be funded. For the complete analysis of this scenario, please refer to Case 2.

8.3 TIFIA Loan

Recognizing that the project is infeasible under both the gross and net toll revenue pledge scenarios, the benefit of a federal TIFIA loan was analyzed. With this enhancement, project funding improved to 40.1 and 49.2 percent under the net and gross toll revenue scenarios, respectively. For the complete analysis of these scenarios, please refer to Case 3 and 4.

8.4 Concession

As demonstrated in the prior scenarios, large project shortfalls exist under all of the traditional financing options available to publicly-owned assets. As a result, a private sector concession agreement was explored. For this analysis, financing assumptions included a 50-year concession agreement, a taxable 44-year non-recourse debt financing, a federal TIFIA loan and a required equity return of 14.0 percent. This structure would fund approximately 43.3 percent of the project. It is important to note, however, that this scenario does not utilize a concession-optimized forward looking toll schedule. For the complete analysis of the concession study, please refer to the Concession case.

X. FUNDING ALTERNATIVES

10.1 GARVEE Bonds

The potential benefit of GARVEE bonds to fill the financing gap was also analyzed. This scenario assumed that the current Kentucky obligational authority amount of $399 million will remain constant through bond delivery in 2016 and then grow at 0.5% annually thereafter. It also assumed that this will occur with a leveraging of this revenue stream around the existing Series 2005 and 2007 Kentucky GARVEE bonds. Under these assumptions, a “AA” rated GARVEE bond scenario could potentially generate an additional $753 million of project funding. Combined with the gross revenue pledge scenario with TIFIA (Case 4), the project would be fully funded.

As this scenario contemplates utilizing nearly all of the Commonwealth’s GARVEE capacity on this particular project, potential political implications would have to be further analyzed. However, this remains the only scenario under which the project is potentially feasible up to this point.

10.2 Kentucky Gasoline Motor Fuel Tax

The potential for additional project funding was analyzed through leveraging a small amount of the Kentucky gasoline motor fuel tax. In the Commonwealth of Kentucky for the fiscal year 2007, the motor fuel tax rate was 18.3 cents per gallon and tax revenues were $473.2 million. This translates to $25.9 million of revenue per cent of motor fuel tax in the Commonwealth. Conservatively assuming fiscal year 2007 conditions represent an effective proxy and utilizing a 20-year bond structure and a 2.5 times debt service coverage level (i.e. projected pledged motor fuel tax revenues are 2.5 times greater than debt service in every debt service year), approximately an additional $130.0 million could be generated by leveraging one cent of the motor fuel tax for 20 years.

10.3 Other Sources

Depending on the level of support for the project, numerous other funding sources potentially exist. These include sources at both the Commonwealth level (including, but not limited to, debt service support, an availability payment mechanism, and/or appropriation) and the regional/local level (including, but not limited to, a pledge of general or special taxes, creation of special assessment districts for the benefit of the project, and/or direct project contributions funded through local government bond issuance). The possibility of each (or any) combination of the above being politically palatable remains in question. Specific direction from the KYTC as to the use of each of these financing mechanisms in conjunction with the financial scenarios laid out above should be discussed in detail before any “financial engineering” can be accomplished. Specifically, such discussions should explore such issues as the likelihood of project participant counties leveraging specific tax sources for the benefit of the project, and the likelihood of a potential creation and funding of a State Infrastructure Bank (SIB) within the Commonwealth, (particularly given the current state of financial shortages to fund the current transportation programs). As each of these individual mechanisms is addressed and reasonable assumptions regarding the possible implementation of each of them is determined, the project team is prepared to undertake the financial analysis that will help the KYTC to evaluate each item.

Notes:

- (1) $91/sq foot for typical structure is from 2006 KYTC Bridge Design Estimate ($83/sq. ft) and adjusted by 10%.
- (2) $400/sq foot for long span structure is taken from survey of 26 similar structures constructed since 1981 and adjusted using ENR construction cost indices for 2007 and the RS Means Geographic Index for location.
- (3) Approach Spans - Comparison of 500-yr flood elevation and topographic maps indicate structure clearance will average about 15' - hence structure type and cost will be similar to grade crossing.

Citi maintains a policy of strict compliance to the anti-tying provisions of the U.S. Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, and the regulations issued by the Federal Reserve Board implementing the anti-tying rules (collectively, the "Anti-tying Rules"). Moreover, our credit policies provide that credit must be underwritten in a safe and sound manner and be consistent with Section 23B of the Federal Reserve Act and the requirements of federal law. Consistent with these requirements and our Anti-tying Policy:

The extension of commercial loans or other products or services to you by Citibank, N.A. ("Citibank") or any of its subsidiaries will not be conditioned on your taking other products or services offered by Citibank or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, unless such a condition is permitted under an exception to the Anti-tying Rules.

We will not vary the price or other terms of any product or service offered by Citibank or its subsidiaries on the condition that you purchase another product or service from Citibank or any Citi affiliate, unless we are authorized to do so under an exception to the Anti-tying Rules.

We will not require you to provide property or services to Citibank or any affiliate of Citibank as a condition to the extension of a commercial loan to you by Citibank or any of its subsidiaries, unless such a requirement is reasonably required to protect the safety and soundness of the loan.

We will not require you to refrain from doing business with a competitor of Citi or any of its affiliates as a condition to receiving a commercial loan from Citibank or any of its subsidiaries, unless the requirement is reasonably designed to ensure the soundness of the loan.

Citi maintains a policy of strict compliance to the anti-tying provisions of the U.S. Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, and the regulations issued by the Federal Reserve Board implementing the anti-tying rules (collectively, the "Anti-tying Rules"). Moreover, our credit policies provide that credit must be underwritten in a safe and sound manner and be consistent with Section 23B of the Federal Reserve Act and the requirements of federal law. Consistent with these requirements and our Anti-tying Policy:

The extension of commercial loans or other products or services to you by Citibank, N.A. ("Citibank") or any of its subsidiaries will not be conditioned on your taking other products or services offered by Citibank or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, unless such a condition is permitted under an exception to the Anti-tying Rules.

We will not vary the price or other terms of any product or service offered by Citibank or its subsidiaries on the condition that you purchase another product or service from Citibank or any Citi affiliate, unless we are authorized to do so under an exception to the Anti-tying Rules.

We will not require you to provide property or services to Citibank or any affiliate of Citibank as a condition to the extension of a commercial loan to you by Citibank or any of its subsidiaries, unless such a requirement is reasonably required to protect the safety and soundness of the loan.

We will not require you to refrain from doing business with a competitor of Citi or any of its affiliates as a condition to receiving a commercial loan from Citibank or any of its subsidiaries, unless the requirement is reasonably designed to ensure the soundness of the loan.

Citi maintains a policy of strict compliance to the anti-tying provisions of the U.S. Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, and the regulations issued by the Federal Reserve Board implementing the anti-tying rules (collectively, the "Anti-tying Rules"). Moreover, our credit policies provide that credit must be underwritten in a safe and sound manner and be consistent with Section 23B of the Federal Reserve Act and the requirements of federal law. Consistent with these requirements and our Anti-tying Policy:

The extension of commercial loans or other products or services to you by Citibank, N.A. ("Citibank") or any of its subsidiaries will not be conditioned on your taking other products or services offered by Citibank or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, unless such a condition is permitted under an exception to the Anti-tying Rules.

We will not vary the price or other terms of any product or service offered by Citibank or its subsidiaries on the condition that you purchase another product or service from Citibank or any Citi affiliate, unless we are authorized to do so under an exception to the Anti-tying Rules.

We will not require you to provide property or services to Citibank or any affiliate of Citibank as a condition to the extension of a commercial loan to you by Citibank or any of its subsidiaries, unless such a requirement is reasonably required to protect the safety and soundness of the loan.

We will not require you to refrain from doing business with a competitor of Citi or any of its affiliates as a condition to receiving a commercial loan from Citibank or any of its subsidiaries, unless the requirement is reasonably designed to ensure the soundness of the loan.

Citi maintains a policy of strict compliance to the anti-tying provisions of the U.S. Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, and the regulations issued by the Federal Reserve Board implementing the anti-tying rules (collectively, the "Anti-tying Rules"). Moreover, our credit policies provide that credit must be underwritten in a safe and sound manner and be consistent with Section 23B of the Federal Reserve Act and the requirements of federal law. Consistent with these requirements and our Anti-tying Policy:

The extension of commercial loans or other products or services to you by Citibank, N.A. ("Citibank") or any of its subsidiaries will not be conditioned on your taking other products or services offered by Citibank or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, unless such a condition is permitted under an exception to the Anti-tying Rules.

We will not vary the price or other terms of any product or service offered by Citibank or its subsidiaries on the condition that you purchase another product or service from Citibank or any Citi affiliate, unless we are authorized to do so under an exception to the Anti-tying Rules.

We will not require you to provide property or services to Citibank or any affiliate of Citibank as a condition to the extension of a commercial loan to you by Citibank or any of its subsidiaries, unless such a requirement is reasonably required to protect the safety and soundness of the loan.

We will not require you to refrain from doing business with a competitor of Citi or any of its affiliates as a condition to receiving a commercial loan from Citibank or any of its subsidiaries, unless the requirement is reasonably designed to ensure the soundness of the loan.

Although this material may contain publicly available information about Citi corporate bond research or economic and market analysis, Citi policy (i) prohibits employees from offering, directly or indirectly, a favorable or negative research opinion or offering to change an opinion as consideration or inducement for the receipt of business or for compensation; and (ii) prohibits analysts from being compensated for specific recommendations or views contained in research reports. So as to reduce the potential for conflicts of interest, as well as to reduce any appearance of conflicts of interest, Citi has enacted policies and procedures designed to limit communications between its investment banking and research personnel to specifically prescribed circumstances.

Citi maintains a policy of strict compliance to the anti-tying provisions of the U.S. Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, and the regulations issued by the Federal Reserve Board implementing the anti-tying rules (collectively, the "Anti-tying Rules"). Moreover, our credit policies provide that credit must be underwritten in a safe and sound manner and be consistent with Section 23B of the Federal Reserve Act and the requirements of federal law. Consistent with these requirements and our Anti-tying Policy:

The extension of commercial loans or other products or services to you by Citibank, N.A. ("Citibank") or any of its subsidiaries will not be conditioned on your taking other products or services offered by Citibank or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, unless such a condition is permitted under an exception to the Anti-tying Rules.

We will not vary the price or other terms of any product or service offered by Citibank or its subsidiaries on the condition that you purchase another product or service from Citibank or any Citi affiliate, unless we are authorized to do so under an exception to the Anti-tying Rules.

We will not require you to provide property or services to Citibank or any affiliate of Citibank as a condition to the extension of a commercial loan to you by Citibank or any of its subsidiaries, unless such a requirement is reasonably required to protect the safety and soundness of the loan.

We will not require you to refrain from doing business with a competitor of Citi or any of its affiliates as a condition to receiving a commercial loan from Citibank or any of its subsidiaries, unless the requirement is reasonably designed to ensure the soundness of the loan.

Although this material may contain publicly available information about Citi corporate bond research or economic and market analysis, Citi policy (i) prohibits employees from offering, directly or indirectly, a favorable or negative research opinion or offering to change an opinion as consideration or inducement for the receipt of business or for compensation; and (ii) prohibits analysts from being compensated for specific recommendations or views contained in research reports. So as to reduce the potential for conflicts of interest, as well as to reduce any appearance of conflicts of interest, Citi has enacted policies and procedures designed to limit communications between its investment banking and research personnel to specifically prescribed circumstances.
